

MEDIA ADVISORY
November 16, 2004
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Pan Quiana at 860.547.1426 ext 7154 or Alycia Santilli at 860.231.8212

First Ever World AIDS Day Workshop Series
Planned for Hartford Residents

Who: Eleven Hartford-area AIDS and social service agencies have united to offer a workshop series planned to raise awareness around HIV/AIDS in Hartford.

What: 2004 World AIDS Day Workshop Series

When: November 30 through December 3rd, 2004

Workshops are taking place in Hartford as follows:

November 30, 11:00 am—Honoring Life Seminar, The Salvation Army, 855 Asylum Avenue, Hartford

December 1, 12:00 pm —HIV 101 for Latinas, Hispanic Health Council, 175 Main Street, Hartford

December 1, 2:30 pm—Hepatitis C and HIV Coinfection for HIV+ Individuals and Providers, The Living Center, 1841 Broad Street, Hartford

December 2, 10:00 am—Supportive Housing and the Recovery Model, Mercy Housing & Shelter

December 2, 1:00 pm—Dealing with the Emotional Response of AIDS for Grandmothers, Clark Elementary School

December 2, 5:30 pm—Women's Social Hour on HIV Issues for Spanish speakers, La Paloma Sabanera Coffee House, 405 Capitol Avenue, Hartford

December 3, 11:00 am—Consumer Advocacy - Getting Your Voice Heard! The Living Center, 1841 Broad Street, Hartford

December 3, 12:00 pm—The Impact of HIV on LGBTQ Relationships, Hartford Gay & Lesbian Health Collective, 1841 Broad Street, Hartford

December 3, 5:30 pm—Inspirational Speaker and Dance and Drama Youth Show, Pope Park Recreation Center, Pope Park Boulevard

December 3, 7:00 pm—Unhealthy Relationships & HIV Transmission, YWCA of the Hartford Region, 135 Broad Street, Hartford